Bulletin – Week 7 of Term 2, Friday June 4 2021

Post Lockdown #4

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends

Well done to all in managing the last week so well. Our staff again step up and serve us all so beautifully while you as families stay strong and work through another difficult time. So welcome back as we again resume our normal routine whilst not forgetting our families and friends in the metropolitan area.

Live Life to the Fullest In Christ

Paul Arnel
Principal

Dates To Remember

Weeks 8 & 9	Rescheduled PSG Meetings
Monday June 14	Queen's Birthday Holiday
Friday June 25	Last day of Term, 2:15pm finish

Principal Appraisal

Paul Arnel will be participating in a reflective appraisal over the next few weeks. This is an opportunity for Paul to identify areas of strength and areas for future growth for how he leads the school.

All staff members and a representative group of parents and carers will be called upon to provide feedback through a survey. These contributions are important to Paul as he reflects on his role as Principal at St Joseph's.

Further opportunities to contribute will be made on June 23rd when Janet Claassen, Principal Consultant from CES, will be onsite to meet with Paul, students, teachers, parents and carers.

Launching St Joseph's PS Numurkah official Facebook page

St Joseph's now has an exciting and informative Facebook page called 'St Joseph's PS Numurkah'. The aim of the page is to inform, promote and connect with current families and local communities. We would encourage everyone to follow the page using the following links.
<https://www.facebook.com/stjosephspsnumurkah>

We have updated our Media Release Form on our Enrolment Application Form to incorporate social media accounts. If you have any queries, or wish to change your permissions for your child/en, please contact our office. Below is the updated Media Release Permission on the Enrolment form:
